Eve and Jane are friends. They live near a lake. On hot and humid days, they like to swim in the lake. Sometimes they float on their backs. Sometimes they race.

Sailing is what they like to do best. Jane's dad has a big boat. He shows them what to do. They help him with the ropes and the sails. He even lets Eve and Jane hold the wheel and pilot the boat. It is not simple, but they try hard to do their best.
