

Assessment 7 Student Sheet

10	copied emptied	cities parties	spied tried	hurries buddies
----	-------------------	-------------------	----------------	--------------------

11	spider until	satin defend	minus robot	river magic
----	-----------------	-----------------	----------------	----------------

12	money around full nothing warm love heard every those anything early	hood mouth straw found honk launch strange match germ stood world	done today along water walk often once laugh though wash woman	shook worm gentle start fault broom hook shampoo worst drawn stage
----	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

14 The Queen had a fancy party. Ladies were dressed in satin and lace. Men wore their best clothes. There was a large crowd in the ballroom.

The Queen's cook made many good treats for the party. He cooked steaming noodles with sauce. He made ginger cookies and maple candies. He made pitchers of cold drinks.

"This is all so good!" cried the Queen. "You are a clever cook."

All the people in the ballroom gave the cook a big cheer for his hard work.