

Read Carefully

game	went	about	stacks spot	stopped	path	but away	cake	run	dusted rocket	two	upon	just log	name	running	when bus	spotted	some	pins
spelled	which	leg	cut
spin	fun	napkin	want

Read the Story

Jack was at camp. His dog Rex was missing! It was a puzzle.

“I spotted your dog running away,” said Ben. “Did you look at the lake?”

Jake ran up the path. Rex was not on the path. He ran to the lake, but Rex was not at the lake. Just when Jake was about to run back to the camp, he came to a cave. He went in the cave. There was Rex, taking a nap!

“Rex!” yelled Jake. Rex jumped up and ran to Jake.

“I am so glad to see you!” said Jake.

Read Carefully

rabbit	away	until	four chop	rack	your	stopped
hands	jump	about	made rake	them	came	some pretty	spell	other	handed just	still	late	stem make	jumping	duck	two carry	then	find	same

Read the Story

“Oh, look at these dolls,” said Ann. “Can I have one, Mom?”

“I think you can have one on your next birthday. Which one do you want?” asked Mom.

“I like the one in the pretty pink dress. It is the best one,” said Ann.

At last it was Ann’s birthday. Ann still wanted the doll with the pretty pink dress.

Mom and Dad came in with a big box. “Happy Birthday, Ann!” they said.

Ann looked in the box. It was the doll with the pink dress. Ann was very happy!

Read Carefully

we	skin	way	stopping stay	jumped	pretty	than about	ate	such	other
Stan	some	very	picnic rested	ran	stain	pail must	play	two	lifted spell	that	wagging	take pocket	much	jumps	four

Read the Story

I am planning a trip. I will go to the airport. A plane will take me away. There will be a train waiting for me. The train will take me to a big ship. I will sit on the ship and nap. The ship will sail away to a place with sun and sand. There will be lots of water.

I can play in the sand and swim in the water. I cannot wait to go on my big trip.

Read Carefully

wait	do	frogs	us
away	up	pretty	wind jumping	yes	went	picked wish	swim	nail	two running	about	go	kitten happen	lake	who	sun
carry	be	this	swam taps	want	paint	with

Read the Story

We are helping Dad paint the fence. We have buckets of paint, brushes, and rags.

We paint the fence. Dad paints the gate. It looks fine, but the paint is still wet.

Muffin, Miss White's cat, runs to the wet fence. He gets paint on him! Miss White will be mad. I will get the paint off with a rag. There are still spots. I will rub them off and carry Muffin back to Miss White.

Read Carefully

where	shipping	test	away shopping	day	he	skill other	Jake	well	pain landed	where	frame	carry
Jack	four	paint	door
bell	his	slammed	no gave	mopped	into	were one	me	bath	hopped

Read the Story

It is raining. Max and Jane have to stay in. What can they do?

“Let’s bake a cake!” said Jane. I will get the box of cake mix and a can of frosting.”

Max and Jane mixed the cake. They baked it in a pan.

“The cake is hot,” said Max. “We do not want the frosting to melt. Let’s play a game while we wait.”

They played a game and then went to check on the cake.

“It is not hot,” said Jane.

Max and Jane frosted the cake and ate it.

“Yum!” they said.

Read Carefully

find	plain	bike	plans
give	bottle	because	dripped sudden	cake	door	apple bundle	blessing	blade	flash planned	very	what	gave life	battle	bring	middle sail	spotless	ride	your again	game	jacket	traffic

Read the Story

We are having a picnic today. I have a big picnic basket. We will put a blanket on the grass here in the shade. Then we will take a hike and have our lunch. We have sandwiches and cake. We have apples. We have drinks in bottles. Yum! This will be a fun picnic.

Wait! Look at the ants on the blanket. They will go into the basket. Stop! We will put our basket in this spot. A spot with no ants!

Read Carefully

drive	think	give	dimple carry	their	light	shifted again	cry	puzzle	came cattle	please	four	side winning	planning	him	what why	ate	rain	thing prize	your	drink	into many	because	candle	say

Read the Story

“Mom,” called Liz.

“What is it?” asked Mom.

“I cannot nap,” said Liz.

“You must rest,” said Mom. “Is the light too bright?”

“No, the light is just right,” said Liz.

“Are you sick?” asked Mom.

“No, I am fine,” said Liz.

“We will look at a book,” said Mom.

Mom and Liz looked at a book. When she finished, Mom asked Liz if she liked the book. Liz was very still. She was napping!

Read Carefully

unlock	one	give	other fumble	please	picked	pile fine	want	simple	into again	takes	may	fiddle wrap	stay	pretty	make jumped	their	were	what cuddle	jumps	running	class where	train	pumpkin	resting

Read the Story

We had a play. Parents came to see the play. The lights came up. They were bright!

Pam had a pretty white dress. She sang a song. I juggled plates. I tossed them up high and did not drop one!

Bill played the fiddle. He was very good. Five children tapped. They tapped fast and did not stumble.

At the end of the play, we made a line. We all sang while Bill played a song. The parents clapped. They liked our play!

Read Carefully

paint	ripping	their	away because	until	white	tray claim	high	kettle	give grumble	what	try	hopped pocket	flight	why	write into	way	name	tagged landed	some	hopping	juggle take	blushing	day	tested

Read the Story

Fire! Fire! A fire was coming across the grass. It was getting very hot! The men and women rushed to stop the fire.

Crack! A big branch fell. Run to a safe spot! The fire was strong! The men and women had buckets.

They made a chain and passed the buckets in the line. They battled the blaze, but in the end, they stopped the fire. The men and women were very brave!

Read Carefully

brag	clapping	flash	because tickle	two	stumble	while again	nine	night	upon clay	give	way	struggle
hair	right	please	tested their	tackle	about	fire white	insect	bragged	tablet crushed	pair	rabbit	why

Read the Story

The baseball game was in the last inning. The score was 2 to 2. The Big Cats were at bat. The bases were full.

Dan hit a high one, but Mike stopped the play. Next came Bill. He did not get a hit.

Then came Jim. Jim swung the bat and hit the ball with a big crack! It was a home run! The fans yelled as Jim crossed home plate.

What a game!

